

on the expiration of one year from the date thereof, an additional sum of fifty dollars, the failure of payment of which shall be deemed and taken as a resignation of the office of inspector; and no person can act as inspector or corder of fire-wood in the city of Baltimore, unless having first complied with the requirements of this section.

29. The inspectors appointed under the provisions of this act shall enter upon the duties of their office on the first Monday of April ensuing.

JAIL.

The Act of 1862, ch. 8, adds the following:

30. The warden of the jail of the city of Baltimore, shall prepare and send to the judge of the Criminal Court of Baltimore city, on each and every Saturday, a full and complete list of the names of all persons who are committed to his custody, by the justices of the peace of said city, either as vagrants or in default of security to keep the peace; and the judge of the said court, shall have full power to review the said commitment, and upon examination of the various cases so reported to him by the warden of the jail as aforesaid, he shall discharge or recommit the said parties for a term not to exceed six months, as in his discretion may be most conducive to the preservation of public peace and order.

31. The justices of the peace of the city of Baltimore are hereby prohibited from charging costs in the cases above named, unless the parties are recommitted by order of the judge of said court.

JURORS.

The Act of June 20, 1861, ch. 51, repeals section 603, and substitutes the following:

32. The said judges, having prepared the said list, shall meet in such one of the court rooms, of the city of Baltimore, and at such time as they shall appoint, not less than ten days before the beginning of the May term of the Superior Court for Baltimore
